

Have a dream? Ever imagine what that might lead to?

An eye-opening one-of-a-kind live interactive 60-minute Zoom presentation for students and parents hosted at no charge by Iowa Ballet Academy, providing you with the most authoritative & direct path to Broadway, dance, television, film, voice, music, writing . . . or anything you dream of doing and becoming

(Especially designed for kids & parents who are “burned out” on Zoom!)

Tuesday, August 9th 6:30 pm (CT)

Free Admission Studio Screen or Laptop Essential Parent Required

Presenter: Peter Sklar

Ed. M. Harvard University

“For lots of young hopefuls, his advice could easily mean the ultimate big break.”

-The New York Times

“Peter Sklar has proven over and over he knows what it takes to make it into the big picture.”

-ABC TV News

“What do Reese Witherspoon, Sarah Jessica Parker, and so many others have in common? They and thousands of successful performers all got their start with Peter Sklar.”

-NBC TV News

RSVP HERE!

Please note that due to the need for parental participation during the talk, the on-screen presence of at least one parent (actual mother, father, or legal guardian) is required for students under age 18. One-on-one interviews for opportunities in New York, Los Angeles, and London will be offered on an optional basis following the talk.

Large Studio Screen or Laptop required (No phones please)